In Memoriam

Edwin Roehm

We, the Senior Class of 1951, hereby dedicate this XXI volume of the Bellerophon to our late custodian who has filled loyally and faithfully the position he has held at Convoy from 1943 to 1950. He will be long remembered by the many friends he gained while at Convoy.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1951, about to depart from these beloved portals where we have worked and played for twelve short years, have acquired a few treasured traits and characteristics which we deem meet and just to pass on to you, most worthy underclassmates. So, being, at present, sound, both of body and mind, we do will and bequeath the following:

To the Junior Class, our distant seats in study hall, may you absorb all the sunshine and cheeriness to be obtained.

To the Sophomore Class, our ability to bluff the teachers and get along with our fellow men. May you be able to do as little work as we have.

To the Freshmen, we do will and bequeath our High School education and our ability to run faster than any other class to the cafeteria.

We, as individuals of the Senior Class of 1951, will and bequeath our own personal possessions as follows:

I, Rosie Klinger, do will my natural curls to Marcia Bell.

I, June Bell, do will my ability to get a diamond to Mary Strunkenburg.

I, Velma Hoverman, will my ability to get into trouble in Home Economics class to Nancy Davis and my ability to go steady to Wanda Brook.

I, Margie Fawley, will my red hair and green eyes to Shirley Frane, and my typewriter to anyone who can use it. May they make less errors than I.

I, George Klinger, will my love for a Wren girl to Rowland Klinger.

I, Jim Hyitt, will my Plymouth to Ron Gaskill, may he use it to attract the girls as I have.

I, Herb Wagner, will my ability to get along with a certain girl to Bob Waldron. Good Luck!!!

I, Dan May, will my blond curly hair to Joe Wyandt, may he use it for his best appearance.

I, Jeanne Wilkin, will my height to Gloria Rogers.

I, Mary Bell, will my Spanish book to Shirley McDaniel.

I, Bobbye Gaskill, will my dark hair and eyes to Kenny Imler, and my love for a tall man to Donna Slane.

I, Junior Bauer, will my pick and shovel on the P.R.R. to Joseph Meyer.

I, Jake Owens will my brown curly hair to Varel MacIntosh.

I, Earl Black, will my ability to always get on the honor roll to Geraldine Gaskill.

I, Mervin Barkley, will my ability to be class president to the Schaadt twins.

I, Duane Poling, will my ability to get snow bound at my girl friend's house to Paul Schaadt.

I, LeRoy Hoaglin, will my John Deere to Bobby Klinger. Just remember the horn isn't to scare cars. Also, I will my seat in English class to one who is well worthy of it. Sit, with, caution!!!

I, Bob Edwards, will my ability to dodge all razors to Lowell Oechsle.

I, Dan Snyder, will my ability to play the trumpet to Jim Beatty and my butch hair cut to Bobby Waldron.

I, Bob Knittle, will my ability to get along with all the women to Jerry Jerome.

I, Doyt Schaadt, will my flashy socks and ties to Mr. Hebb and my green Chevie to whoever can drive it.

I, Barbara Clay, will my connection with the U.S. Army to Margie Snyder, and my seat in Democracy class to anyone who prefers the front of the room.

I, Donna McCleary, will my mischievous ways to Lloyd Etzler and my manpower to Rose Marie Scaer. Use them with great thought!!!

Signed, this fifteenth day of January in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-one, in witness of the Faculty, by the President of the Senior Class, on behalf of and with consent of his classmates we hereby declare this document, the Last Will and Testament of the Seniors of 1951.

Senior Class Prophecy

Being one of the many who would like to know what is to come and being better off if I didn't know, I am now at Dr. Pepper's Sanitarium-----ah-----Planetarium about to embark upon his famed trip to the hereafter. I am making this trip partly because the galloping poll has assigned me to find out the future of the class of '51 and partly because I am so darned noseey.

The room is hushed as I adjust my Buck Rodgers hat and the Professor throws the switch that hurls me into the great beyond.

As the darkness clears I find myself in jail. Let's see, there is a sign which reads, "OHIO STATE PRISON, Columbus, Ohio." Now I see the reason I have been sent here. Mervin Barkley is still watching over members of the class of which he was president. He is talking to prisoner 1313137. Why, it's Bob Edwards. I knew he'd get to be too handy with the cards.

Let's see if we can catch a little of their conversation. Merve is saying, "Yes, Art Bauer has worked himself up from section hand to president of the O.P.U. Railroad and Jeanne Wilkin has made enough as his secretary to retire to a life of touring the night clubs.

Dan Snyder has become the leader of his own band and is touring the country, competing for "Band of the Year," honors against the Sentimental Swingsters, who feature Duane Poling on the saxophone.

Jim Hyitt and Bob Knittle both just completed top pitching performances in the major leagues for which they pulled in a cool $75,000 each.

Herb Wagner, owner-president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is currently in the middle of a million dollar player deal.

Dan May is now head of a company that is manufacturing a new car called the "Erskine."

Just then they hear someone and stop talking until Warden George Klinger passes. After he is gone, Bob asks Merve to continue. After all, thirteen years is a long time to be inside the walls.

"Well," says Merve, pulling up a chair and laying his bull-whip on the floor, "June Bell has become a lady rassler with Max as her manager. Mary Bell and Rosie Klinger have teamed up to become world renown hair dressers.

Donna McCleary, has become head of her own Ladies Wear Corporation where she designs many of the creations. Her husband stays at home with the official title of Vice-President-in-charge-of-the-children.

Doyt Schaadt is very busy as Secretary of the Interior under the President of the United States, Barbara Clay. Yes, a woman president. Things have really gone to pot. But Jake Owens, who is running against her this year is conceded a pretty good chance of winning, so she will have to retreat to the state of Multi-Millionaire. I don't know what has happened to the rest of the gang and I do mean gang, but here comes someone who may.

LeRoy Hoaglin, prison handiman, comes up to the cell and when he is asked what he knows about the class of '51, says, "Herb K. has become president of Schumm poultry enterprises. Margie Fawley has become one of the most successful women in America. She is the editor of two magazines, and the head of the Literary Guild of America.

Earl Black has been appointed Civilian Governor of conquered Redland and is now engaged in writing an autobiography.

Velma H. and Barbara G. have settled down and married but have both become famous in their own right. Velma was voted Mother of the Year last year and Barbara won the distinction this year, and both have been featured in "Life Magazine."

Well, it was almost time for me to leave and the prisoner's assembly bell had just rung so I thought I would get an early start back to 1951 and maybe stop off to see who the 1958 Rose Bowl game winner is.

With a whirl I am headed back for the present. On the way back, I heard a whine which is the last bullet fired in the Korean War.

I can now report to the poll that the Class of 1951 has a very bright future, and I wish them all the luck as they leave Convoy to meet that future.

-----Bob Edwards

Senior Class History

One calm day in that autumn month of September in the year nineteen hundred forty, forty-three lads and lassies boarded the train named "Diploma or Bust." The first stop we made was at room one, where our conductor was Mrs. Reidenbach. Through much struggle and excitement we were promoted to the second grade. We were met by Mrs. Carey here. Our next step was the third grade, taught by Mrs. Smith.

The high light of the fourth grade was an operetta entitled, "Aunt Drucilla's Garden, presented by the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades.

After struggling through the fifth and sixth grades we boarded the train again for a trip to the two Junior high grades. Our teachers here were, Mrs. Stose and Mr. Edwards.

Our next step was to the Freshman Class, where we were greeted by an initiation. We had several parties this year sponsored by Mr. Smith.

In our second year of high school we initiated the Freshmen. Mr. Sawmiller was our sponsor.

Next came the all important Junior year. First we ordered our class rings. We alternated serving at the ball games with the Seniors. We selected the cast for our class play, which was the first play that had been presented for several years. The name of our play was, "Three Blind Dates." The last big event of our Junior year was the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "A Starlight Garden."

On September 11, 1950, twenty-three students moved to the side of study hall labeled, "Seniors." After eleven long years we are near the town of Diploma. This has been a busy year but many things are yet to come. We are looking forward to the Senior Class Play, Commencement, Baccalaureate, and to the Senior Class Trip.

Our train is almost to the last station, then we will be boarding another train, named, "Life." We hope it to be as successful as our high school career.

Class of 1952

The class of 1952 started on their journey through Convoy School in 1940 with a class of forty-two pupils and Miss Catherine Dean as our teacher.

After our memorable first year we passed on from grade to grade with Mrs. Norma Carey as our second grade teacher; Mrs. Helen Smith, third; with Mrs. Mary Meyer, fourth; Mrs. Rema Mohr, fifth; and Miss Jessie Driver, sixth.

We entered Junior High in '46. Besides finding ourselves with a lot of hard work to do, we also found that we were breaking into the social life of the school. We had many good times including a trip to the Toledo Zoo, and a skating party at the YWCA in Van Wert. Our Junior High teachers were Mrs. Charlotte Stose, and Mr. J. C. Edwards.

We were warmly welcomed into High School by the Sophomores. This year our class enjoyed a hay ride and wiener roast and also a class party at the home of Rose Marie Scaer. Our sponsor this year was Mr. Dwight Smith.

During our Sophomore year we held two parties. The first was to welcome the Freshmen into High School and the second was a pot luck supper and skating party. We sold house numbers and mail box signs to make money. Donna Slane was chosen May Queen for the annual Spring Band Concert. Our class sponsor was C. B. Brown.

We have now reached our Junior year and are working hard to make money for our Prom and our Senior trip next year. We share basketball concessions with the Seniors and had charge of concessions at the Holiday Tournament. Our sponsor is Mr. John Hebb.

We are all looking forward to our Senior year.

The cause, not the pain, makes the martyr.-----Augustine

Sophomore Class History

In 1940 we started on a new road that we would be traveling for twelve long years. We were unaware of the rough spots in the road. Our first teacher that helped us over some of these hardships was Miss Catherine Dean.

When we were promoted into the second grade, we thought we were growing up, but little did we know what was ahead of us.

In the next five years, our learning became more advanced, then all of a sudden we were upstairs.

Our seventh grade teacher was Mrs. Charlotte Stose.

Next was the eighth grade, where as all students before, we were to take the all important eighth grade tests. We did well with the teaching of Mr. Edwards.

Then we entered the first year of high school as the greenhorns. We accepted the initiation given us by the Sophomores. Mr. Dwight Smith was our sponsor.

This year, as we are in the Sophomore class, Mr. Bernard Jacobson is our sponsor. Our class officers are: President, Wayne Small; Vice-President, Joan Baker; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Pancake. We, as Sophomores, had the pleasure of initiating the Freshmen.

Freshmen

- ROW ONE: Jim Beatty, Russell Gaskill, Pat Mohr, Stanley Mollenkopf, Bobby Klinger, Shirley Kiracofe, Gene Harting, Harold Krueckeberg, Lowell Kever.
- ROW TWO: Mr. Smith, Lowell Oechsle, Janet Black, Doyt Owens, Dick Neiswander, Glenn Klinger, Lowell Cress, David Beatty, Bob Rogers, Dale Boggs, Lois Krugh.
- ROW THREE: Phyllis Joseph, Bob Waldron, Marcia Bell, Varrel McIntosh, Doyle Weaver, Clarice Jackson, Bill Kever, Kenny Imler, Evelyn Klinger.

Freshman Class History

In our first year of school there were forty-three pupils enrolled with Miss Ruth Johnson, as our teacher. In the second grade, there were thirty pupils with Mrs. Norma Carey, as our teacher, and in the third grade, Mrs. Helen Smith was our teacher with thirty-one pupils.

In the fourth grade, with thirty pupils, Mrs. Julia Friedly was our teacher. The fourth, fifth, and sixth grades gave an operetta titled, "Sunny of Sunnyside." Mrs. Rema Mohr was our teacher in the fifth grade with thirty-one pupils. The fifth and sixth grades gave an operetta, "The Legend of the Snowman." In the sixth grade Miss Jessie Driver was our teacher with thirty-one pupils.

We entered into Junior High with twenty-seven pupils and Mrs. Charlotte Stose as our seventh grade sponsor. We elected class officers for the first time. President was Dick Neiswander; Vice-President, Lois Krugh; Secretary, Beth Mace; Treasurer, Betty Sesney; and Reporter, Bill Kever and James Beatty. The seventh and eighth grades gave an operetta titled, "H.M.S. Pinafore."

In the eighth grade Mr. J. C. Edwards was our class sponsor with twenty-five pupils. Our officers this year were; President, Bill Kever; Vice-President, Dick Neiswander; Secretary-Treasurer, Beth Mace; and Reporters, Lois Krugh and Patty Mohr. The seventh and eighth grades gave an operetta, "The Tea House of Sing Lo."

This year in the ninth grade we have twenty-eight pupils and Mr. Dwight Smith is our sponsor. We were welcomed into high school with an initiation party by the Sophomores. Our class officers this year are; President, Dave Beatty; Vice-President, Doyle Weaver; Secretary-Treasurer, Lowell Kever; Reporter, Patty Mohr and Red Cross Representative, Lois Krugh.

Basketball

ANTWERP--NOVEMBER 3

Starting the season of 1950-51, Convoy showed team play by scattering their points well among the starting lineup, D. Schaadt led with fourteen points. Bauer and May came next with thirteen and ten points respectively. May scored a field goal in the last two seconds to give the Indians a 49-47 victory.

The reserve team played a fine game winning in fine style.

WREN--NOVEMBER 10--ARMORY

The Indians journeyed to the Armory to meet Wren, and produced another one of those games which gives coaches gray hair. The Eagles jumped to an early lead of 14-13 at the quarter, 32-26 at half-time and 40-38 at the end of the third period. The Indians' defense stiffened and turned out a 48-47 win over the Eagles.

Convoy made it their night by whelping the Wren reserves--35-20.

FARMER--NOVEMBER 11

The Indians continued their fine winning streak by tipping Farmer for their third victory. The score was 11-8 in favor of Farmer at the end of the first period. Convoy led at half time-28-27, 46-44 at the end of the third period, and 61-54 at the end of the game.

The reserves turned in another good performance winning 39-31.

UNION--NOVEMBER 22--ARMORY

The Thanksgiving game featured the Indians against the Wildcats, showing a score of 58-40 for the final count, in favor of Convoy. CHS made 22 free-line shots out of 38, while Union hit 14 out of 28. D. Schaadt and Bauer paced the high scorers with 15 and 14 points.

The Convoy reserves conquered the reserve game, 44-38.

RIDGE--DECEMBER 8

Turning in their fourth win over Ridge, Convoy scored 19-14, 41-22, 64-35, and 82-43. D. Schaadt hit the nets for twenty-three points.

The reserves also won their fourth straight game.

OHIO CITY--DECEMBER 15

This game turned the tables for the Convoy Indians, who found the going quite rough. Play was close all the way, but the Warriors came out on top 41-37. The Indians retreated, perhaps surprised, but their spirit was free.

The Reserves tallied on to bring in their usual, fifth straight victory with a score of 39-29.

YORK--DECEMBER 20

The Indians played well the first half and were leading 39-12 at half time. The reserves finished the game and won 69-38.

The Reserves also turned in another victory.

Basketball con't.

LATTY--JANUARY 1, 1951

The Indians bounded to a 14-9 lead in the first quarter, but dropped behind 22-30 at half time. They rallied in the third period, but the score stood 41-37 in favor of Latty as the period ended. Latty then pushed in four quick shots and the Indians weren't able to recover. The final score stood Latty 66, Convoy 53.

UNION--JANUARY 1, 1951

The Indians were very tired after playing hard in the afternoon. Play was very close during the first half with the quarter score being 11-12 in favor of Union. Union gained a basket on the Indians and the score stood 26-24 in favor of the Wildcats at half time.

Convoy didn't show much punch the last half. The Wildcats won 64-51.

ROCKFORD--JANUARY 6

The Rockford Tigers zoomed into an early lead. The score stood 15-9 at quarter time and 18-35 at half time. Rockford was hot. The Indians couldn't seem to find the basket. Convoy couldn't recover and the game ended 44-61 in favor of Rockford.

Our unbeaten reserve team lost its first game of the season, 26-36.

UNION--JANUARY 12

Play was very close all through the game. The Indians were out to beat Union. The quarter score stood 9-11 and half time 22-23 Union. The third period opened with a bang, both teams hitting a good percentage of their shots. The third period ended with a 32-33 score in favor of Union. The Indians faltered in the last period and Union won 48-45.

The reserves lost another close one 27-29 in a well played contest.

MIDDLE POINT--JANUARY 16--ARMORY

The Indians opened with a bang, but were behind 26-33 at half time. From then on, there was little doubt of the winners. Middle Point won 66-48

The reserves lost a very, very close game in a double overtime 28-30.

WILLSHIRE--JANUARY 19

Convoy was all out for this game. The Indians bounded to a safe lead in the early stages of the game. The score read, 40-21 at half time. The game ended 65-47 in favor of Convoy. This was the best team play and good basketball game the team had shown.

The reserves lost 30-23.

WREN--JANUARY 26

The Indians moved over to Wren to battle the Eagles. Play was very close during the first and second periods closing with a score of 25-26 in favor of the Eagles. The third period ended with Wren ahead, 46-37. Then the Indians came back to rally several baskets in succession. The game ended with a 57-54 score in favor of Wren, though it was a moral victory for the Indians and proved to be their most exciting game of the year.

The reserves held the battle line by winning 49-30.

Baseball

The Convoy Indians opened their season by meeting Ohio City under the lights at the Convoy Sport Center. Superb pitching and heavy hitting made the result twenty to one in favor of Convoy. Knittle hurled the first two innings and had six strike outs. Hyitt pitched the next four and sent eleven men back to the bench via the strike out route. Wyandt stopped them the last inning. Mottinger pitched for Ohio City, but wasn't quite as effective. D. Schaadt did ten, catching the Indians as Cramer did for the Warriors. Wyandt had a home run for Convoy, Indians pitchers gave up a total of one run and two hits. Mottinger was pounded for twenty runs, nineteen strike-outs. Both teams had two miscues.

The second game was just as the first, the Indians excelled in both pitching and hitting. Hyitt and Knittle held Ridge to two runs and one hit. They had a combined total of nineteen strike-outs. The Indians had the same totals in this game as they did with Ohio City. D. Schaadt had four for four, and Gaskill with a home run in the first inning, led the attack. Swany and Goodwin pitched for Ridge.

After having the first two games under our belt, we were ready to face the tough schedule ahead of us. Next we played Hoaglin-Jackson. It started out as a real pitcher's battle between Knittle and Doner for the Bulldogs. The Indians scored six runs in the fifth and sixth innings to sew the game up. The final scoring was; Convoy, ten runs, ten hits, and four errors. For H. J. it was four runs, six hits, and one error. Doner had eight strike-outs, while Knittle had ten.

Middle Point was our next victim. The Indians scored early and kept the lead to win by 8-5. Hyitt started on the hill for the Indians and had a shut-out until the fifth inning. Knittle relieved in the sixth when Hyitt developed a sore arm. Convoy out hit the visitors 8-5. Thompson, the losing hurler, had three strike-outs, while Hyitt had eight and Knittle four. Bauer had a home run in the fourth.

We went to York to meet the Dukes in our next to the last game. The seams gave way as Convoy won, 18-0. Knittle gave us five hits and had eight strike-outs in shutting them out Schaffer and Boley gave up nineteen hits. The game gave way as the Indians scored eight runs in the second and eight more rendering the Dukes helpless.

Our final game was with Wren. Both teams undefeated in five games. It was Hyitt and D. Schaadt for the Indians, Bowen and Turner for Wren. Convoy broke the ice in the second inning when D. Schaadt hit a four bogger with two aboard. That proved to be the margin of victory as Wren went down to defeat 4-2. Hyitt gave up six hits while striking out eleven. Bowen gave up five hits and had eight strike-outs. The win enabled Convoy to finish the fall season undefeated.

The members of the chapter have an average of 2.5 production projects and one improvement project in their individual farming programs. The chapter had plots of six acres of tomatoes and thirteen acres of soybeans. We also sprayed over four hundred acres of clover for the control of spittle bug; corn and fence rows for the control of spittle bug and weeds. The chapter also participated in sheep, swine, poultry, dairy, and beef judging on a county and state basis. We also conduct a pest hunt and carry out a farm safety program.

The chapter carries out a well-rounded social and recreational program not only locally but with other chapters. Holding wiener roasts, hay rides, square dances, playing softball, playing basketball, watermelon feeds, and bowling parties. Along with all these annual Parent and Son Banquet is held in March.

Indian Sentinel Staff

Our school paper, the INDIAN SENTINEL, is published by the Senior Typing Class. It is put out at different intervals of the year.

The grade teachers and the class and club reporters turn in their news to one of the Indian Sentinel Staff members and they in turn space it, line it up, and then it is typed on stencils and run off on the mimeograph. After all the stencils have been run off, the pages have been arranged in their consecutive order and then they are stapled together.

Thus in publishing the school paper, it gives us office practice experience from the different problems that arise.

Have You Heard About The Moron Who:

Stood on a corner with a piece of toast in his hand, waiting for a traffic jam?
Served bullets for dinner so he could pass the ammunition?
Knew he missed the streetcar because he saw the track go by?
Took a tape measure to bed with him to see how long he slept?
Saluted all refrigerators in camp because he thought one of them was General Electric?
Tried to be a vitamin because he read the sign "Vitamin B-1?"
Took a streetcar home and his wife made him take it back?
Looked through the screen door and strained his eyes?
Thought that mushroom was a room to neck in?
Went to the lumber yard to see his Draft Board?
Thought Western Union was cowboy's underwear?
Poked his eyes out so he could go on a blind date?
As he was dying, asked for a chair for Rigor Mortis to sit in?
Wore a cellophane suit because the doctor told him to watch his stomach?
Went out the streetcar backwards; he heard two women say they were going to grab his seat?
Wore pumps because he had water on the knee?
Wore himself in two so he could wear a two piece bathing suit?
Took a ladder to a party because he heard the drinks were on the house?
Cut off his arms so he could wear sleeveless sweaters?
Shot his father and mother so he could go to the Orphan's Picnic?
Poured whiskey on his victory garden so he could grow stewed tomatoes?
Put corn on his shoes so he could feed his pigeon toes?
Told his wife he was going to shoot craps--she committed suicide because she didn't know how to cook them.
Cut off his nose to see what made it run?
Took cream and sugar to the local cinema; he heard there was going to be a serial?
Ran around the cracker box because there was a dotted line around the box which said, "Tear around here.?"
Stayed up all night to study for a blood test?

Ingenuity: The different things you can do with Hadacol.

It is time to get your shoes re-soled if, when you step on a nickel, you can tell whether it's heads or tails.

Mervin! Mervin!

What, mother?

Are you spitting in the fish bowl?

No, Ma, but I'm comin' pretty close!!!

Mrs. Pinis--Arthur, what did Caesar exclaim when Brutus stabbed him?

Art--"Ouch!!!"

Mr. Brown--"Before we were married you called me angel."

Mrs. Brown --"Yes, I know it."

Mr. Brown--"And now you don't call me anything."

Mrs. Brown--"Well, you ought to be glad that I possess such self-control."

Joe S.--"My dad is an Elk, a Lion, and a Moose!"

Josie--"What does it cost to see him?"

Chuckles

Mr. Jacobson--"I hope I didn't see you looking at Cork's book."

Dan S.--"I hope you didn't too."

George--(after a narrow escape at a railroad crossing): "How come you blew your horn? You oughta known it wouldn't do you any good."

LeRoy--"Boy, that wasn't my horn. That was Gabriel's!"

Cannibal King--"What we got for lunch today?"

Chef--"Two old maids."

Cannibal King--"Ugh, leftovers again?"

Mrs. Backus--"Didn't I tell you to notice when the soup boiled over?"

Mrs. Wherry--"I did. It was half past ten."

Max--"Have a cigar?"

Paul S.--"No, thanks--Sworn off smoking."

Max--"Well, put one in your pocket for tomorrow."

June--(Pouting) "I believe you would sooner play cards with papa than sit in the parlor with me."

Max--"No, dear, I wouldn't but we must have the money to get married on."

Shirley--"Did your watch stop when it hit the floor?"

Dan M.--"Sure, did you think it would go on through?"

Jeanne--"I think this fellow is a bad egg."

Soni--"Oh, he's much too fresh for that."

Mr. Schaad--"It's getting awfully late and we haven't hit a thing yet."

Herbie Jr.--"Let's miss two more and then go home."

Mr. Hebb--"What were Webster's last words?"

Bob E.--"Zaragoza, Zurich, Zwingli."

Bob K.--"This liniment makes my arm smart."

Jim H.--"Why not rub some on your head?"

Barb Clay--"Guess my pen will have to go on itching."

Marge Snyder--"Why?"

Barb--"I'm out of scratch paper."

Mary Pancake--"They laughed at me when I sat down at the piano--I had forgotten to bring the stool."

Bob S.--"My brother is working with 5,000 men under him."

Donna Mc.--"Where?"

Bob--"Mowing lawns in a cemetery."

Brown--"Let's get our wives together tonight and have a big party?"

Hebb--"OK! But where shall we leave them?"

Joyce--"But darling we can't live on love."

Cork--"Sure we can. Your father loves you, doesn't he?"

Chuckles

Love, said a male cynic, is the delusion that one woman differs from another.

There are two periods in the man's life when he doesn't understand a woman---
Before marriage and After marriage.

A definition of happiness, as given by Oliver Wendell Holmes, is "Four feet on a fireplace fender."

A rare book is a borrowed volume that is returned to its owner.

When asked if he liked bathing beauties, Mr. Bingle looked over at his better half and said apprehensively: "Really, I don't know; I never bathed one."

A Tommyhawk is what if you got to sleep suddenly and wake without hair, there is an Indian with.

A Mugwump is a bird that sits on the fence with his mug on one side and his wump on the other.

Do right and fear no man.
Don't write and fear no woman.

Gruesome--Father did not shave for a week, and gruesome whiskers.

Love starts when she sinks into his arms, but ends with her arms in the sink.

Sophisticated Girl: One who knows how to refuse a kiss without being deprived of it.

Short story beginning: Two old maids went for a tramp.

Lady: A woman who makes it easy for a man to be a gentleman.

Alcohol: A liquid good for preserving almost anything except secrets.

Hug: Energy gone to waist.

They say that high heels were invented by a girl who never got kissed anywhere but on the forehead.

If a fellow can drive a car safely while he is kissing a girl, he is not giving the kiss the attention it deserves.

Paul--"What became of that unpaid bill the Dunn Company sent to us?"

Ellen--"Oh, that. I sent it back marked insufficient funds."

Don Lare: "My wife just had quinsy."

Mr. Clay: "Gee, how many does that make you now?"

A little boy came home from school with a terrible report card for January. "My goodness," said his mother, when she saw it, "what happened?"

"Oh, nothing special," answered Billy. "You know how it is. Things are always marked down after the holidays."
